The diagram shows three tens blocks (each a 10x10 grid) arranged horizontally, followed by a minus sign, then another three tens blocks, followed by another minus sign, and finally a third three tens blocks. This represents the equation  $100 - 30 = 70$ .

Cash Payment

You can submit a claim for the following cash payments.

1. Cash Payment A – Documented Losses: You may receive reimbursement for documented losses up to $5,000 total, if you lost or spent money trying to prevent or recover from fraud or identity theft that you believe is fairly traceable to the Data Security Incident and have not been reimbursed for that money.

Examples of documented losses include: out of pocket expenses incurred as a result of the Data Security Incident, including (without limitation) bank fees, long distance phone charges, cell phone charges (only if charged by the minute), data charges (only if charged based on the amount of data used), postage, gasoline for local travel, fees for credit reports, credit monitoring, or other identity theft insurance products purchased on or after November 18, 2024 through the Claim Form Deadline.

Examples of supporting documentation include (but are not limited to): (i) credit card statements; (ii) bank statements; (iii) invoices; (iv) telephone records; and (v) receipts. Self-prepared documents such as handwritten receipts are, by themselves, insufficient to receive reimbursement, but can be considered to add clarity or support other submitted documentation. You will not be reimbursed for expenses if you have been reimbursed for the same expenses by another source.

To obtain reimbursement under Documented Losses, you must provide the details below and attach supporting documentation.

Supporting documentation must be provided: Attach a copy of credit card statements, bank statements, invoices, telephone records, and receipts for each expense (you may redact unrelated transactions).
